

Change log

Under "Administration / Change Log" you can access an overview of all log entries.

Above this list you have the option to filter the list according to certain criteria.

Provides the option of filtering the change log by name, type (command, contact, contact group, host, host group, host template, service, service group, service template, time period) and action (add, copy, delete, edit).